

Why is no one stepping up to take action?

Excuse me—hello? FBI? CIA? Where are you? Why aren't you stepping in to address this chaos?

Congress, Judicial branches, where's your backbone? Warren, Bernie Sanders, AOC, Tulsi Gabbard, Deb Haaland—are any of you even paying attention? Is anyone willing to take action, or are you content watching everything burn from the comfort of your offices?

This is not just incompetence—it's negligence at the highest level. Every person in this administration, especially those at the top, seems perfectly fine letting the entire system crumble before our eyes. Are we seriously supposed to sit back and watch the country implode without anyone stepping up to fix it? What kind of leadership is this? Where is the accountability? Where is the urgency?

We deserve more than empty rhetoric and performative concern. We need immediate, decisive action before this downward spiral becomes irreversible. Enough with the silence. DO. SOMETHING. NOW.
?!?!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

There are a lot of lawsuits active. <https://www.justsecurity.org/107087/tracker-legal-challenges-trump-administration-actions/>

A court issued a preliminary restraining order against funding freezes. https://www.reddit.com/r/fednews/comments/1ig9s71/federal_contracts_grants_can_now_be_awarded_court/

The FBI is refusing to do a witch hunt of J6 investigators.

It's going to take more than a day to react to DOGE's latest transgressions, but the right people know about it, and things are in motion.

Posting under here for visibility since everything new is getting held for moderation indefinitely:

- Stanford law professor Mark Lemley asks government workers whose data was accessed to contact him <https://bsky.app/profile/marklemley.bsky.social/post/3lhbmwfn2qc2n> Says, "Giving access to SSNs, other data on government employees to non-employees like M___ is a violation of 5 USC 552a, and carries with it a penalty of $1000 per person whose data was accessed."

- Rep. Gerry Connolly encourages USAID employees to go to work <https://x.com/GerryConnolly/status/1886417022940012779>

- Rep. Don Beyer will be going on site at USAID HQ today <https://bsky.app/profile/fritschner.bsky.social/post/3lhbpqh7rjc2e>
- A group of Foreign Relations Committee Dems sent a letter to Rubio in support of USAID <https://x.com/SFRCdems/status/1886179919702405259>
- The executive branch does not have the authority to dissolve USAID without an act of congress <https://www.justsecurity.org/107267/can-president-dissolve-usaid-by-executive-order/>